

Sabrina L. Brathwaite, CRPC™

Financial Advisor

Sabrina Brathwaite is one of the partners of the Fritsche Brathwaite Group and has been with Merrill Lynch for 12 years. She is the first woman to graduate the Merrill Lynch PMD program in the Charlotte & Associates Complex.

Sabrina has created a program within Merrill Lynch which serves the wealth accumulation and legacy needs of Nigerian physicians and their families throughout the United States.

Most of her clients are from diverse ethnic and gender groups which are usually underserved when it comes to learning how to build wealth, manage wealth, and leave a legacy behind for their families. Some of the members of these groups are Women, African Americans, East & West Africans, Hispanics, and Asians.

Sabrina is a graduate of Winthrop University where she received a Bachelor of Arts and a Masters of Business Administration. She has also earned the Chartered Retirement Planning Counselor designation.

She is a member of Delta Sigma Theta Public Service Sorority, Board of Advisors member for the Charlotte Chamber of Commerce, Board Member of Good Friends Charlotte, President of Merrill Lynch Women Exchange Charlotte, and PMD Coordinator for her branch office, and member of the Merrill Lynch Black African American Financial Advisor Leadership Council.

She and her fiancé, Shabaka Amen, live in the Lake Norman area of Charlotte and have a 6 year old son, Shabaka Jr.
